

Marketing Executive

Metropolitan, the Personal Productivity solutions company is powered by the best global brands in workplace solutions, Information and Communication Technology, Power and Energy Solutions, Telecommunication, and Interior Solutions among others. The Group caters to a leading corporate clientele and is rapidly expanding into consumer market categories. We offer a learning culture that facilitates self-development, career growth and exposure to state-of-the-art technology in a pleasant, yet challenging work environment. If you're convinced that you will be an asset to our team of professionals, this is your opportunity.

Responsibilities of the role,

The ideal candidate should be responsible for achieving set targets, identify and canvass new opportunities to boost sales and developing new customers through building a long term relationship with them to ensure continuous business including operations and activities involved in promoting and selling

The Profile,

- Minimum qualification would be G.C.E O/L
- Part / Full qualifications in CIM, SLIM or any other relevant marketing studies
- Minimum one year experience in sales field will be an added advantage
- Excellent interaction skills with customers
- Integrity extravert individual with outgoing personality
- Should be a self-motivated and target oriented individual

An attractive remuneration package commensurate with qualification and experience is on offer for the post. Send in your CVs to work@metropolitan.lk along with names of 2 non-related references to below address stating “Marketing Executive” in the subject line. Within 07 days of this advertisement